The mission of the College of Lake County Emerging Leaders Program is to engage students in a leadership experience that will foster personal and professional development, build a diverse community, and establish meaningful student relationships while teaching the importance of accountability. The ELP is designed for developing leaders who will contribute to building and strengthening their skills and contribute to their community.

Given the ELP's stated purpose, please briefly answer the following questions typed on a separate piece of paper. The application will not be accepted without the questions answered.

1. What do you hope to gain from participating in the Emerging Leaders program?
2. What are your current leadership development goals?
3. How will the ELP meet your needs and help you accomplish some of these goals?

PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY (over)

CLC Emerging Leaders
Leadership Conference
Grand Geneva, Lake Geneva, WI.
October 24 & 25, 2009

This is a requirement of the program. This conference is free and open to all CLC students who have a 3.0 G.P.A. or freshman and are attending CLC credited classes. However, you must complete all the requirements, or a $300.00 fee will be added to your CLC account. Once all the requirements are completed, the Emerging Leaders program will be listed on your co-curricular transcript.

Transportation is provided for the conference. You cannot drive on your own. You must attend all of the events.

You must be at the college on Oct. 24th by 7:00am to catch the bus and the bus will return to the college by approximately 2:00pm on the 25th.

Please fill out both sides of this reservation form completely, attach your goal answers and turn both in to the Student Activities Office (C101) by October 2, 2009.

Code of Conduct

The College of Lake County students participating in College activities are expected to be the best example of good citizenship at all times and will abide by all guidelines established for the event. Anyone who is caught in the act of theft or vandalism, caught with illegal drugs/alcohol, or is involved in other such offenses shall, at the discretion of the College staff, be sent home at the individual's expense. You must attend all of the scheduled events at the conference.

Realizing that all safety precautions will be taken, I exonerate the College of Lake County and its staff of any responsibility in case of accidents. In order to expedite treatment, I hereby give my consent for treatment of minor injury and medical emergencies. I have read this policy and understand and agree to adhere to it and all the policies of the College of Lake County.

I give permission to be photographed or video-taped for College use. I also give permission to the College of Lake County staff to check my grades for the purpose of meeting the G.P.A. for the Emerging Leaders Program.

If I register for the conference and do not attend, drop out of college, or do not finish the ELP requirements, I will be responsible for paying the cost of the conference, which will be $300.
